PRAYERFUL-LEE

"I call on you, O God, for you will answer me; give ear to me and hear my prayer."

Psalm 17:5-6

A trip to Lesotho...

I was able to take a trip to Lesotho, in April to visit and encourage my friends Jason and Joselyn Thiemann, serving with MAF there. It was an amazing trip where I also saw MAF airplanes and staff in action. I got to stand again in Africa, see things I've seen before, and remember just how Africa touches my heart.

Many needs...

Like many places in Africa and other parts of the world, Lesotho is a poor country. Most people live simple lives in the mountains, in huts without electricity or running water. Roads are hard to travel and do not reach many places in the country. HIV and AIDS are having a devastating effect on this country. My heart was touched when I looked upon the face of one woman who welled up within me the many memories of struggles and difficulties these people face; memories of lives of people who don't know Christ and lack the joy and hope only He can bring. I cannot fully explain everything from that moment, but I know Christ was at the heart of it.

A new vision...

As I stood there with my mind flipping through my deeply personal memories of Africa, I caught a vision of Learning Technologies making a difference in a place like Lesotho. I understood how God would give me a passion for Africa, and then align me with LT as the outlet for that passion. I could see the evangelist climbing into an MAF plane equipped with a laptop and a thumb drive that contains tons of resources to use in the mountains. I could see how remote clinic workers could benefit from solar powered MP3 players loaded with health information and/or evangelistic teaching. I could see how pastors in the remote villages could benefit from the training materials that LT helps develop on a regular basis. I could see Christ building His Kingdom in Lesotho via Learning Technologies...and I marveled to be part of it.

An increased passion...

I have an increased passion for Learning Technologies (and of course Africa) because of this trip! Earlier God inspired me to start this journey toward ministry with MAF-LT, and this trip inspires me to continue it. I am excited to see what is in store for me in this ministry. Praise God!

From my heart...

When chatting with a friend who has become a ministry supporter, she shared why she and her husband have partnered with me and MAF-LT. “We want to participate in something eternal...if we partner with you, it gives us that opportunity.” Doing something eternal is the most important ingredient in my ministry with MAF-LT. I get excited about developing training materials for pastors and expanding the reach of the Gospel of Jesus Christ in remote places. But those who partner with me are also participating in the eternal work of expanding the reach of the Gospel through MAF-LT!

Thank you for walking with me in the journey. Your prayers, kindness, encouragement, and support are absolutely remarkable, and I'm so blessed by all of you. I know that when I am able to depart for Idaho, you will “accompany” me as partners in my ministry. With you walking alongside me, it will be nothing less than an incredible journey. Thank You!

For Praise and Prayer...

In the last nine months, the Lord has blessed me with opportunities to share the ministry of MAF-LT with many individuals and churches. Through their generous gifts, the Lord has already supplied the full $10,400 in outgoing costs needed for me to head to Idaho. He has also provided 58.7% of the monthly ministry support need ($3,000 per month.) Please join me in thanking the Lord for His grace and provision!

Doing the math, there is another 41.3% ($2,100) in monthly financial ministry support needed to reach the goal. A couple of exciting ways to reach that goal might be - If 42 people could join my ministry support team at $50/month, I'd be at 100%! Or, if just 21 people were able to come on at $100/month, I'd be heading to Idaho! Will you prayerfully consider if you might be one of the people God is calling to participate with me in this eternal ministry through MAF-LT? Whatever amount per month God might be leading you to give, it will be a blessing to have you working alongside me.

Please continue to pray for me as I seek to make more contacts with new people and churches in order to share this ministry vision and invite them to partner with me.
