

Wings of Eagles

Fall 2009

"After this the Lord appointed seventy-two other, and sent them two by two ahead of him to every town and place where he was about to go. He told them, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field. Go! I am sending you out...'" Luke 10:1-2

Please pray for...

- A strong, growing relationship for us newly-weds!
- A clear vision for our future
- A good finish for Joy as she prepares to leave Intersity Christian Fellowship
- Patience for God's timing in our departure for Indonesia

Hello, from the Newly-Weds!

Joy and I had a wonderful wedding this summer. We were thrilled to have so many people be a part of it! In the homily, Pastor John shared with the congregation from Luke 10:1-2. He spoke about how Joy and I were both called, from when we were young, to a special purpose. It was no common occurrence that brought the two of us together. Clearly God had His hand on each of us, and was guiding our lives together. We were called together by God's direction and have been sent by Him to serve!

As Jesus sent the disciples out two by two, so God has sent Joy and me out together. We both were seeking to serve God as we could when we were single, and God has blessed us more than we could have ever hoped by giving us to each other. What a joy it is to be setting out to serve together!

And our preparations are not too early! I was watching a special on DVD about the ministry of Mission Aviation Fellowship in Indonesia, and I was struck by how few missionaries there are in some of the areas where MAF flies. Many times MAF provides aviation services to various mission organizations in remote areas. At this particular Indonesian base the pilots serve the local church and communities with their flights, but they remain the only western missionaries for nearly 300 miles. The need for more people to share the Good News only grows!

Would you pray about how you can partner with Joy and me as we go to live as God's servants and witnesses in Indonesia?

In Christ,

Daniel and Joy Geaslen
